

REMARKS

This amendment is in response to the office action dated October 4, 2005. In the office action, claims 1-2 and 4-5 were rejected. Claims 6-15 were allowed. A detailed discussion of each item in the office action follows.

THE 112 REJECTION

In item 2 of the office action, claims 1-2 and 4-5 were rejected under 35 USC 112, second paragraph. In particular, the term “the door button” was rejected as lacking antecedent basis. Claim 1 has been amended to add antecedent basis. Applicant’s Attorney believes that based on the amendment, this basis of rejection has been overcome.

OTHER CLAIM AMENDMENTS

Claim 1 was amended to correct a spelling error by rewording “engagig” to --engaging--.

Claims 4-5, 7 and 12 were amended to change the term “antitheft” to --anti-theft-- for consistency with the specification and other claims.

Claim 11 was amended to insert the term “the” between the terms --sealing-- and --entrance--.

THE ALLOWABLE SUBJECT MATTER

In item 3 of the office action, the Examiner indicated that claims 6-15 are allowed.

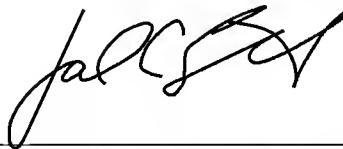

In item 4 of the office action, the Examiner indicated that claims 1-2 and 4-5 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection under 35 U.S.C. 112 and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims. Independent claim 1 has been amended, as discussed above, to overcome the rejection under 35 U.S.C. 112. Applicant's Attorney believes that based on the amendment to independent claim 1, claims 1-2 and 4-5 are now in condition for allowance.

CONCLUSION

Applicant's Attorney thanks the Examiner for the Examiner's help in prosecuting this invention. In response to the office action, Applicant's Attorney has amended claims 1, 4-5, 7 and 11-12. Applicant's Attorney has been careful to avoid the introduction of new matter. In addition, a separate petition and fee to revive this application, which was unintentionally abandoned, is attached. Applicant's Attorney believes that all items in the office action dated October 4, 2005 have been addressed, and respectfully requests the Examiner to reconsider the claims, as amended, with a view towards allowance. Applicant's Attorney further invites the Examiner to contact Applicant's Attorney for a telephonic interview at the below listed number if the Examiner believes that prosecution of the application can be furthered by so doing.

Respectfully submitted,
